Department of Women’s Studies and LGBT Studies

Travel-Study Course

Jamaica

Gender in the Caribbean: Colonialism to the Present

May 18-27, 2014

THE UNIVERSITY OF THE WEST INDIES

Application Deadline: March 15

(WMNST 499, 597, 798)
Join us for 10 days of intensive study and travel in Jamaica. We will study with Jamaican Women’s Studies and LGBT professors and visit women's NGOs and the LGBT Center in Kingston. The group will also visit the great sites of Jamaica. SDSU Professor will lead the trip. The course is open to ALL SDSU undergraduate and graduate students, as well as community members. Students will receive 1-3 units of graduate or undergraduate credit for the course.

Estimated Cost: $2,000 approximately (inclusive of all International and internal travel, board and lodging, fees for speakers, and tourism. Tuition ($297 per unit) not included. Some scholarships are available from the Associated Student Council.

INFORMATION MEETING: Wed. Feb. 12, 3:00-5:00pm in AL 346 and by appointment

For more information please contact: Dr. Huma Ahmed-Ghosh
E-mail: ghosh@mail.sdsu.edu Tel: 619-594-3046